

The Difference is Weighting™

CAP

In the Cap Weighting methodology, stocks are allocated solely due to relative company size. The larger the market cap of a company, the greater its relative allocation in the index. This results in random sector concentration problems that change over time.

STRATIFIED Sector Weighting

STRATIFIED as of 12/31/2021

STRATIFIED

By evenly weighting and rebalancing among sectors, Syntax Stratification offers a more diversified way to capture market return.

S&P 500 Index and S&P 500 Equal Weight Index performance in Syntax Sectors as of 12/31/2020 and 12/31/2021

EQUAL

In the Equal Weighting methodology, the random distribution among the number of stocks in the sectors creates its own ever changing sector concentration problems by assigning equal weights across all stocks regardless of sector, classification, and economic factors.

STRATIFIED

By evenly weighting and rebalancing among sectors, Syntax Stratification offers a more diversified way to capture market return.

Syntax Advisors provides investors with rules-based, diversified exposure to business risks via products that track Syntax Stratified Weight Indices. Syntax Indices are a new class of indices that reweight the most widely-used benchmarks, including the S&P 500, S&P 400, and MSCI EAFE using the Stratified Weight methodology to deliver a diversified return across all of the business opportunities in a benchmark.

Syntax products were developed in conjunction with Functional Information System (FIS), the patented business classification system built by Locus Analytics that provides the technology used to identify business risks in a portfolio. Syntax Indices are developed and maintained by Syntax LLC, Syntax Advisors' parent company. Syntax Advisors, LLC is a SEC registered investment advisor based in New York, NY.
